

Orange is the new blue

ORANGE will be replacing blue on 11 May as we acknowledge allergy awareness. Children are invited to wear something orange to show we are allergy aware. During the school day they will be learning about what an allergy is and how it manifests itself in our bodies. They will also learn how we deal with an allergic reaction. So get your orange tops, trainers, and hats ready for our Allergy Awareness Day on 11 May.

The best of health

WE are delighted to announce that we have been successful in gaining a Surrey Healthy Schools award. This is in recognition of all the great work that the school does to promote healthy lifestyles, support children's medical needs, staff dedication and commitment to providing children with the highest level of care, to build children's resilience and strengthen their mental health. Our Good to be Green positive behaviour system, themed curriculum and Jigsaw PSHE programme were particularly commended.

A new face at St. Hilda's

WE are delighted to hear that St. Hilda's have appointed a new Vicar. Reverend Joseph Fernandes will be joining St. Hilda's some time in June. Originally from Portugal he has been Curate in Wraysbury and Horton since 2015. We look forward to welcoming him to our school very soon.

A right royal lunch

WE will be celebrating the Royal Wedding with a special lunch on 17 May. Check your email if you have not received the letter. All slips to be returned by Friday 4 May please.
