

We are all writers

NEXT week there are going to be lots of exciting opportunities for the children to develop their writing skills during our 'We are all writers' week. They will not only be exploring their literacy skills but perhaps even more exciting is that we will have an author who will be visiting us. Tina Stubbs, the author of 'Life's Little Bugs' will be coming in to see us and talk to the children. This will be happening on Thursday 7 March which coincides with World Book Day. She will be signing and selling books after school in the hall if you would like to come along. On World Book Day everyone is invited to come to school dressed as their favourite book character. Mums and Dads, do you use writing in your line of work? If so, then we would like to invite you to school on this day to talk to the children.

Please see class teacher if you are interested.

Who's been eating my porridge?

RECEPTION that's who! Mrs Parsons made a great Mummy Bear when our Reception children made porridge this week. As part of their theme 'traditional tales' they have been reading the story of Goldilocks and the Three Bears.

An Inspector calls

NEXT Thursday, the school will be having our SIAMS inspection through the London Diocese. The Statutory Inspection for Anglican and Methodist Schools (SIAMS) is a process of evaluating the effectiveness and distinctiveness of our school as a Church school. We are looking forward to building on the Good grading we received in the last inspection in January 2014 and will update you of the outcomes in due course.

The beautiful game

WE are super proud of both our boys' and our girls' football teams who have been playing some really tough games recently.

Well done to the girls who came third in the inter schools tournament this week.

Join together in prayer

THE next Parents Prayer Group will take place next Wednesday 6 March in school at 2.30pm. Why not come and see what it's all about? Everybody welcome.
