When in Rome...

...do as the Romans do and as the saying goes Year 4 did exactly that this week. As part of their theme 'Rotten Romans' they participated in a drama workshop exploring the history and culture of the Roman Empire. They also made honey cake to a traditional Roman recipe and made mosaic patterns—all while dressed in their wonderful Roman costumes.

The Vicar who came to tea

THIS week as part of National thank your Vicar week we invited Father Stuart from St Matthews to enjoy tea and cake with the School Council. Don't forget to say thank you to your Vicar!

Reminders

- School will close at 2.30pm on 1 and 2 November due to Parent/Teacher consultations.
