

Using

'and'

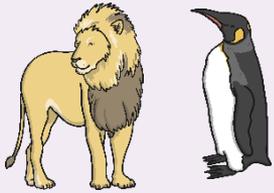

to Join Words and Clauses

Warm-Up

twinkl

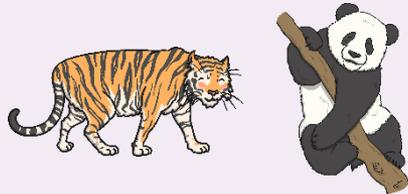

Can you complete the sentences to describe what each child saw at the zoo?
Remember to use the word and to join the two animals together.

I went to the zoo and I saw a lion and a penguin.

I went to the zoo and I saw a kangaroo and a parrot.

I went to the zoo and I saw a tiger and a panda.

I went to the zoo and I saw a zebra and a hippo.

Show answers

The word and is a bit like the filling of a sandwich that keeps two parts of a sentence together. Can you read the sentences on the bread and then choose which two sentences go together with and as the filling?

Show answers

Can you write a sentence to describe what each of these characters have in their suitcases using the word and to join the parts of your sentence together?

She has a cape and a basket.

Little Red Riding Hood

She has a crown and a pea.

The Princess and the Pea

He has boots and a hat.

Puss in Boots

Show answers

Can you put the jigsaw pieces together to make sentences? Remember, each sentence should have the word and in the middle.

At my party we will play games

and

They worked really hard

Her favourite foods were jelly

and

He has red hair

eat birthday cake.

ice cream.

a long nose.

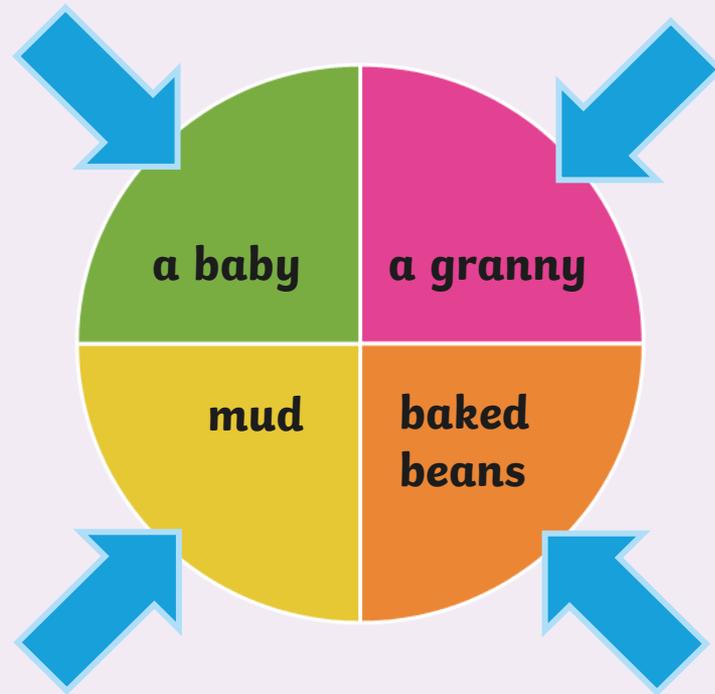

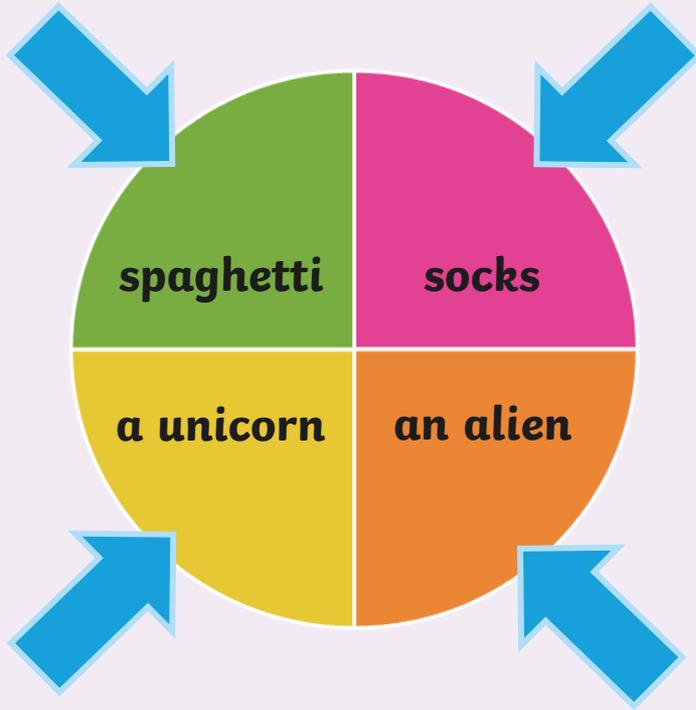

they won the prize.

and

and

Show answers

Spin the spinners! Write a silly sentence that includes the words chosen by both spinners and uses the word and to join the different parts of your sentence.

one more time!

Example: The monster ate socks
and a granny for breakfast.

