

LQ: What are the Jewish people remembering?

• Check on our learning from last week:

- What Yom Kippur means
 - How Jewish people remember the festival

What is in my special box?

Why are they having another
Jewish party?

What are they remembering?

Sukkot

- During Sukkot Jewish people are remembering the years that the Jews spent in the desert on their way to the promised land. It celebrates the way in which God protected them under difficult desert conditions.
- Every family will build a Sukkah which is a hut with a roof made of branches and leaves.

The festival is set down in the Hebrew bible book of Leviticus.

“You shall dwell in sukkot seven days.... In order that future generations may know that I made the Israelite people live in sukkot when I brought them out of the land of Egypt, I the Lord your God.” Leviticus 23: 42

Can you build a model of a sukkah?
