

Story
Telling
Week

30th January –
6th February 2021

Friday 5th February
To read my writing aloud.

Friday 5th February

To read my writing aloud.

Yesterday you wrote your exciting stories! Some were versions of The Magic Paintbrush and some were different stories of your own. We have really loved reading them all.

Today your task is going to be to tell your story! If you can, perform your story for someone at home. If you would like to send us a photo or a recording of you telling your story then we would really love to hear it.

Friday 5th February

To read my writing aloud.

How can we be good storytellers?

Can you remember Michael Rosen's top storytelling tips?

Friday 5th February
To read my writing aloud.

Friday 5th February
To read my writing aloud.

- Roleplay characters and personalities
- Tone and emphasis
- Speed and pacing
- Sound effects
- Expressions and movement
- Be enthusiastic
- Rhyme and repetition
- Be silly!
- Perform the story

Friday 5th February
To read my writing aloud.

Let's watch Michael Rosen telling another story.

What good storytelling skills do you notice?

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=vWwwwv1tB-_s

Friday 5th February

To read my writing aloud.

Describe some of the character
in your stories.

How will you express them when you tell your story out loud?

Could you use your tone of voice,
expressions and gestures?

Friday 5th February
To read my writing aloud.

The middle parts of your stories are very exciting. Will you tell these parts quickly or slowly? Why?

Friday 5th February
To read my writing aloud.

Will you use any sound effects when you tell your story?

What will they be? What parts of your story will you use them for?

Friday 5th February
To read my writing aloud.

Will you use gestures or movements
when you are telling your story?

What will they show?

Friday 5th February
To read my writing aloud.

Will you need to 'be silly' when telling your story?

When and why?

Friday 5th February

To read my writing aloud.

We hope you enjoy telling your stories today!

You may choose to tell the whole story you have written or to choose the key parts of it.

Remember to be enthusiastic and to speak in a clear voice.

We would love to see photos and clips of you performing your stories.

