

POND LIFE

Look at these facts about pond life. After you've read one of the facts, tick one of the details that go with it.

A pond is a small area of still, fresh water.

It isn't like a moving stream or a river.

Ponds are very deep.

Ponds are often full of plant and animal life.

Plants and animals depend on each other.

Slowworms don't live in ponds.

Even small ponds can be home to frogs and newts.

Ponds can be polluted.

You might also find small fish in ponds.

Dragonflies are often seen flying near ponds.

Dragonfly eyes are the biggest of all insects.

Dragonflies begin life underwater in ponds.