You could also try and find out:

- which book took the longest to write;
- which book has sold more copies than any other;
- who has written the most books;
- which is the smallest book ever made.

Thursday 4th March HAPPY WORLD BOOK DAY!

Tomorrow we will continue to celebrate books by looking at some activities on the World Book Day Website.

If you would like to, have a look around and see what books you should be able to purchase with your £1 book tokens which should be available from school soon.
