

Wednesday 3rd March
LO: To use modal verbs.

Wednesday 3rd March
LO: To use modal verbs.

Let's remind ourselves of the story of The Incredible Book Eating Boy.

Again, we will read up to, 'stop eating books' on slide 20.

Wednesday 3rd March
LO: To use modal verbs.

Henry needs to stop eating books!

Yesterday you planned an advert for your own favourite food to convince Henry to try that instead. Today you will write your persuasive advert!

Wednesday 3rd March

LO: To use modal verbs.

Scrumptious Sizzling Sausages and Mash!

You must buy this tasty meal because it is the most delicious meal in the galaxy! You will be so sad if you miss out. If you don't buy this meal today, you may never know just how scrumptious and sizzling sausages can be. The mash potato is the most creamy and delicious mash ever. If you buy this meal, you can choose from any of these incredible vegetables to go with it: crunchy carrots, perfect peas, brilliant broccoli and crisp cauliflower. Order now to enjoy a sizzling sausage and mash sensation!

Perfect Powerful Pizza!

Our pizza is the best in the world! You must not miss out on this delectable, delicious treat. Make sure you order our perfect pizza today or you may never get another chance. We have the tastiest pizza bases, the most tantalising tomato sauce and all of the yummiest toppings that you can imagine. You may choose as many toppings as you like from this mouth-watering list: succulent, colourful peppers, flavourful mushrooms, tempting cheese, spicy chicken and exquisite olives. You must not miss out! Buy today for the most enjoyable meal of your life!

What features a good advert needs to have?

Wednesday 3rd March
LO: To use modal verbs.

modal verbs
tier 2 and 3 adjectives
and superlatives

What do each of these features mean?

Wednesday 3rd March

LO: To use modal verbs.

Modal Verbs

can	cannot			must	must not
		could	could not
may	may not			shall	shall not
		might	might not
will	will not			should	should not
		would	would not

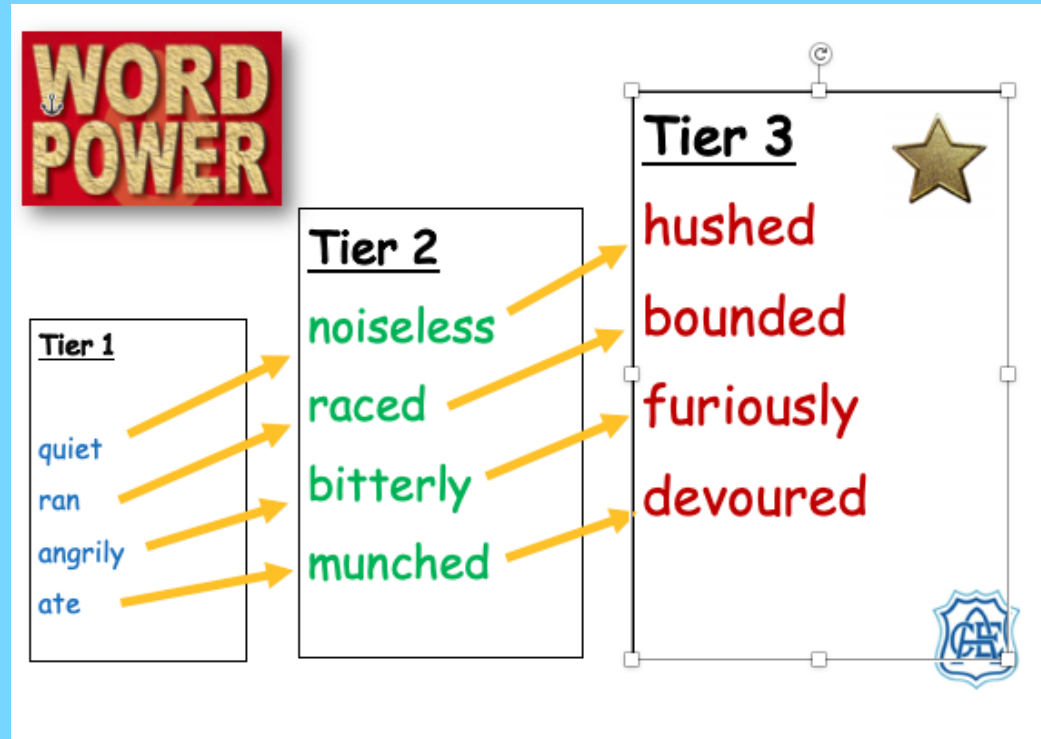

Modal verbs
show when things
are needed,
likely or possible.

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/zwwp8mn/articles/zps4pbk>. (first video)

Wednesday 3rd March

LO: To use modal verbs.

Adjectives are describing words. In Year 3 we try to use tier 2 and 3 adjectives and to write expanded noun phrases by using two adjectives with a comma in-between them, before a noun.

Wednesday 3rd March

LO: To use modal verbs.

A superlative describes something as the best by:

saying it is the 'most' something.

For example, the most scrumptious

or by using an est suffix

For example, the tastiest or the yummiest

What is a superlative?

Wednesday 3rd March
LO: To use modal verbs.

Today your Learning Objective is to use modal verbs in your writing. These can be used to persuade Henry that he should try your meal!

As you are so brilliant at applying your Year 3 skills, we would also like to see ambitious adjectives in your writing.

Your challenge © is to include some superlatives.

Wednesday 3rd March
LO: To use modal verbs.

Together we will practise using our planning ideas from yesterday to form full sentences for your adverts. You will write your own advert after our Zoom today.

Exciting title for your favourite meal: _____

	ambitious adjectives	superlatives	modal verbs
Opening line - why is your meal the best
Part 1 of your meal: _____
Part 2 of your meal: _____
Part 3 of your meal: _____

Wednesday 3rd March
LO: To use modal verbs.

Put your exciting title at the top of your page.

Exciting title for your favourite meal: Charming, Cheesy Chilli!

Wednesday 3rd March

LO: To use modal verbs

How could we use these ideas to form the opening sentences of our advert?

	ambitious adjectives	superlatives	modal verbs
Opening line - why is your meal the best	crunchy      soft delectable      enjoyable	most delicious tastiest most incredible	should must will

Wednesday 3rd March

LO: To use modal verbs.

How could we use these ideas to form the opening sentences of our advert?

	ambitious adjectives	superlatives	modal verbs
Opening line - why is your meal the best	crunchy      soft delectable      enjoyable	most delicious tastiest most incredible	should must will

You must try this delectable, enjoyable chilli because it will be the most delicious thing that you have ever tasted! You should not miss out on this incredible, yummy treat. It is both soft and crunchy and is the tastiest chilli in the world.

Wednesday 3rd March
LO: To use modal verbs.

How could we use these ideas to write full sentences describing the first part of our meal?.

	ambitious adjectives	superlatives	modal verbs
Part 1 of your meal: Tortilla chips	salty    crunchy  tasty	yummiest  most scrumptious	must    can  will

Wednesday 3rd March
LO: To use modal verbs.

How could we use these ideas to write full sentences describing the first part of our meal?

	ambitious adjectives	superlatives	modal verbs
Part 1 of your meal: Tortilla chips	salty    crunchy  tasty	yummiest  most scrumptious	must    can  will

You must make sure that you do not miss out on these salty, crunchy tortilla chips. If you try them, you will find that they are the most scrumptious tortilla chips in the world. You will not believe how wonderfully tasty they are!

Wednesday 3rd March
LO: To use modal verbs.

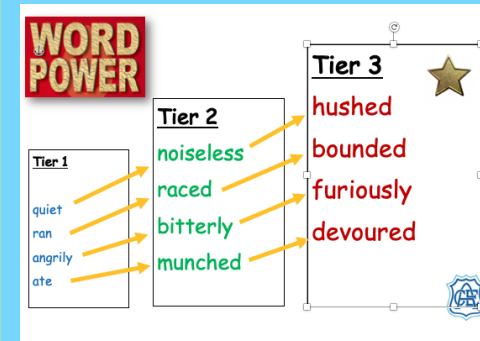

Your task is to write an advert for your favourite meal, using your planning sheet to help you.

Write in full sentences and be sure to include modal verbs and as many ambitious adjectives as you can.

© Can you include superlatives?

Modal Verbs
can	cannot			must	must not
		could	could not
may	may not			shall	shall not
		might	might not
will	will not			should	should not
		would	would not

A superlative describes something as the best by:

saying it is the 'most' something.
 For example, the most scrumptious

or by using an est suffix
 For example, the tastiest or the yummiest.

Exciting title for your favourite meal: _____

	ambitious adjectives	superlatives	modal verbs
Opening line - why is your meal the best
Part 1 of your meal: _____
Part 2 of your meal: _____
Part 3 of your meal: _____			